Captioned subject has been designated for intensive investigation by the Bureau and is a target for early prosecution. The Department has frequently indicated an interest in this investigation. A comprehensive summary-type report was submitted to the Bureau dated 7-26-61, and subsequent additional reports have been submitted by the Miami Office.

A review of these reports indicates the need for coverage of Lansky and his associates and contacts which will accurately reflect his current activity.

In this regard, it is noted Lansky and his wife maintain a residence in the Miami territory as does his brother, Jack Lansky. Lansky's son and his wife also reside in the area, as do several of Lansky's contacts and associates. You are again requested to specifically consider utilizing a highly confidential source in order to enable the Miami Office to be aware of Lansky's current activity.

You are instructed to carefully analyze the scope, program and plan of investigation underway in your office to determine detailed information on Lansky's current activities and dealings. You should advise the Bureau by 11-20-61, the specific investigation which you intend to inaugurate to obtain the desired coverage of Lansky and his associates. Particular recommendations should be made in your communication concerning your plans to obtain highly confidential coverage of Lansky and his associates.

Re Bureau letter to Miami dated 11/13/61.

This case is receiving continuous attention in the Miami Office. Subject has been out of town in the middle of August, 1961, through October 26, 1961, but is currently at his residence in Hallandale, Fla.

The Miami Division contemplates the following steps in an effort to develop information that will insure the most complete coverage possible of his activities:

(1) Will intensify physical surveillances of subject in an effort to determine his contacts and places where his contacts are made

In connection with the above investigative aims, it should be noted that the Miami Division is alert to the desirability of having a confidential source at the subject's residence, but previous investigation has indicated that the physical location of this residence is such that it negates the utilization of this type of investigative endeavor in this area.

In addition to the above outlined steps, results of daily investigation will be closely scrutinized and all avenues of possible productivity will be scrupulously explored.

6. Type of case involved:

7. Connection or status of subject in the case:

LANSKY is one of the individuals selected by the Department for vigorous investigation and early prosecution, and more recently has been designated as one of the individuals to be the subject of a "crash" investigation.

8. Specific information being sought:

Information regarding illegal operations of LANSKY and other Top Hoodlums in the United States. Information concerning his personal income and other financial affairs.

9. Reasons for believing the specific information will be obtained by the technical surveillance:

LANSKY is in poor health and does not have a place of business. It is believed he relies heavily on the telephone to conduct his affairs.

[REDACTED]

b7D

10. Importance of case and subject:

On Departmental instructions, LANSKY has been selected for "crash" investigation and is presently under intense and vigorous investigation.

11. Possibilities of obtaining desired information by other means
(Explain in detail):

LANSKY has been the subject of continuous and intense investigation since 1957 but investigation has not developed concrete information concerning any illegal activities over which this Bureau has jurisdiction. The Internal Revenue Service has conducted active investigation of his business activities since 1944, but has developed no information to support a successful prosecution.

It is believed that valuable information sufficiently concrete to support prosecution on any violation may be developed only through the utilization of unusual investigative techniques.

12. Risks of detection involved:

None known.

13. Probable length of technical surveillance:

Indefinite, depending on productivity.

14. Request made for technical surveillance by any outside agency
(name specific official, title and agency):

None.

15. Remarks:

LANSKY's residence is in a highly exclusive residential area. Each street is separated from all others by waterways and there is but one entrance to the entire area. Hibiscus Drive is a dead end street on which there are only four houses. All houses in the area are widely spaced and the LANSKYS have an open view of the whole area from their house. Because of the above circumstances it has been impossible to effect a misur installation at LANSKY's residence.

16. Recommendation of Assistant Director:

SAC, Miami (92-102 Sub 2)

Miami should continue to vigorously explore the possibility of obtaining highly confidential source coverage that can accurately report on Lansky's present activities. This source might conceivably be located on a close associate or a possible "meeting place" where Lansky transacts business with other hoodlums. This matter should be afforded priority as the Bureau feels it is highly desirable to obtain such coverage on all individuals designated for "crash" investigation and early prosecution.

BOSTON ACTIVITIES

The following investigation was conducted by SA [REDACTED] at Boston, Massachusetts:

b7C

On December 22, 1961, an individual telephonically contacted SA [REDACTED] at the Boston Office and identified himself as MEYER LANSKY. He stated he was calling to advise that he had checked in at the Sheraton Plaza Hotel, Boston, where he planned to stay for several days, probably until December 28, 1961. He stated his visit to Boston was a pleasure trip and that he wanted to spend the Christmas Holidays with his son and daughter-in-law. His son was on orders to report to Wright-Patterson

MM 92-102

Air Force Base in Ohio for six weeks school. LANSKY advised that he was alone and in excellent health with no expectation of consulting his doctor. He insisted his visit to Boston was a family get together and that he had no business activities in Boston requiring his presence there. At the conclusion of the conversation SA [REDACTED] telephonically contacted the hotel and determined that LANSKY was registered there in room 427.

[REDACTED] talked to LANSKY and verified he had contacted [REDACTED] LANSKY refused to indicate who had advised him of [REDACTED] interest in his activities.
